

Let's Talk, Let's Learn Conversation Circle Program

Description:

The Let's Talk, Let's Learn program offers a platform to practice English conversation skills in an informal group setting with other English Language Learner adults. This program provides an opportunity for the participants to share their experiences about Canadian culture with each other, learn about resources available in the community, and other topics of interest to them.

Target Participants:

- Parents and Caregivers of newcomer students
- English ability at pre-literacy/literacy level

Goals:

The program provides an opportunity for English Language Learner adults to come together, share their settlement experience and build social connections. Participants also have an opportunity to practice conversational English in a casual environment. Settlement information and resources are also shared.
