

Course: English Literary Studies & Creative Writing 10

Course Format: Online

Credits: 4

Description: This course is a combination of Literary Studies 10 and Creative Writing 10.

Literary Studies 10 is designed for students who are interested in the literature of a particular era, geographical area, or theme, or the study of literature in general. The course allows students to delve more deeply into literature as they explore specific themes, periods, authors, or areas of the world through literary works in a variety of media. Students are given the choice of a range of literary topics which allows them to follow their passion and at the same time learn new writing and presentation skills.

Creative Writing 10 is designed for students who have an interest in creative expression through language. The course provides students with in-depth opportunities to become better writers through the exploration of personal and cultural identities, memories, and stories in a wide range of genres. This course is intentionally grounded in the exploration and application of writing processes, inviting students to express themselves creatively as they experiment with, reflect on, extend, and refine their writing.

Prerequisites: English 9
