

Course: Socials Studies 8

Course Format: Online

Description: Social Studies 8 covers:

- early world history,
- European history from the rise of the Catholic Church after the Fall of Rome up until the dawn of the Enlightenment in the 17th century,
- the establishment of the Silk Road in China during the Han Dynasty,
- the Portuguese explorations around the Cape of Good Hope and on to southern Asia in the late 15th Century,
- exploring the collision between the Old and New Worlds, and between Europe and the Americas,
- exploring the rise and decline of the Ottoman empire.

Recommended Prerequisite: Social Studies 7

Resources: Online course materials are provided. Personal computer and internet connection are required (not supplied by SAIL). Please note: online course platform is not fully compatible with tablets or smartphones.

