Dear Parents and Guardians,

Your Intermediate child (Grades 4 to 7), has shown interest in joining Surrey Traditional School's Diversity Club! The Diversity Club will occur every Thursday at lunchtime, and it is run by Ms. Parhar and Ms Gill. The Diversity Club's purpose is to help share the importance of equal rights, and to spread equity, inclusion, and kindness throughout our school community. Students will be working together each week to plan something around specific months or cultural events at our school. This includes artwork, posters, assemblies, school-wide activities, and so on.

Some of the following events we will be focusing on in Diversity Club are:

- Lunar New Year (February)
- Black History Month (February)
- Pink Shirt Day/Anti-Bullying Day (February)
- Women's History Month (March)
- Ramadan (March-April)
- Holi (March)
- Easter (March)
- Eid (April)
- Vaisakhi (April)
- Arab Heritage Month (April)
- Cinco De Mayo (May)
- Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month (May)
- Jewish Heritage Month (May)
- Mental Health Awareness Month (May)
- LGBTQ+ Pride Month (June)
- Indigenous History Month (June)

If you have any questions or concerns about our Diversity Club, please do not hesitate to reach out to Ms. Emma Parhar at parhar_e@surreyschools.ca ☺ Your child must return this form signed, in order to participate in the weekly club meetings.

Thank you for your continued support in your child's education!

Sincerely,
Ms. Parhar and Ms. Gill
