In 2007, two Nova Scotia senior high school students witnessed a grade 9 boy being bullied for wearing a pink shirt. The next day they'd bought 50 pink tank-tops and rallied together all in pink, taking a stand against bullying. Thus, Pink Shirt Day was born. Since then the last Wednesday of February has been "PINK SHIRT" Day and people all over the province of BC wear pink to show their support against bullying. This year PINK SHIRT DAY is February 28 and Kennedy Trail Students are invited to wear pink.
