

CODE OF CONDUCT

Our Covenant

École Martha Currie School creates a positive bilingual environment where students, teachers, and parents work together to challenge and inspire each other to achieve success by developing their full potential.

RIGHTS

I have a right to be physically and emotionally safe.

I have a right to be treated with dignity and respect

I have a right to be free from racial, cultural and gender identity harassment.

I have a right to be free from sexual harassment.

I have a right to have my person and my property respected.

I have a right to learn without undue interference from others.

I have a right to express my feelings and ideas.

I have the right to an education.

RESPONSIBILITIES

It is my responsibility to provide a school climate that is free from name calling, intimidation, harassment, and/or any other form of abuse.

I have a responsibility to treat others the way I would like to be treated.

I have a responsibility to respect the diverse ethnic, Cultural and linguistic heritage and gender orientation of others.

I have a responsibility not to make inappropriate physical advances, gestures or comments to any person.

It is my responsibility to respect other people, their personal property and the property of the school.

I have the responsibility to work towards my personal best, to listen well, and to be on task. It is my responsibility to allow others to learn without interference.

I have the responsibility to listen to the differing ideas of others.

I have the responsibility to complete all assignments and tasks, including homework to the best of my ability and in a timely fashion.