Dear Raven Families,

I am looking forward to sending out more information soon about our return to in-class part-time learning for students on June 1st. At this time, we are waiting for the district to unveil the model that all Surrey schools will be following.

Until then, a few reminders for the week of May 25-29th:

Monday, May 25th Non-Instructional Day

Teachers and support staff will not be available on-line this Monday, as they will be involved in professional learning activities.

Tuesday, May 26th-Friday, May 29th

Next week, teachers and support staff will be spending some time throughout their week organizing materials, creating schedules and planning together, in line with the province's return to part-time in-class learning. We want to make sure that we are creating systems that are safe and supportive. Online learning will continue for the week, with as much support from teachers as possible, but expect some disruptions from your regular established routine while we work to set the stage for June 1st.

More information will be coming soon. The District anticipates to have the plan for parents ready by May 26th.

Thank you for your patience in these times of change.

Be Kind, Be Calm, and Stay Safe.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Vervaeet
Principal, Riverdale
