Dear Colebrook Community,

It is with very mixed emotions that I share with you the news that Friday, December 17th will be my last day at Colebrook, as I have recently been appointed the role of Principal at Cougar Creek Elementary.

I have been fortunate to be a part of this amazing community for the past four years. As my first school as a principal, I couldn't have asked to be placed in a better place to learn and grow. The staff, parents and students have taught me so much about what is truly important – community. We've been through a lot in these past years, and I have countless examples of parents, staff and students coming together to demonstrate what it means to be resilient and determined to focus on lifting each other up and be caring towards all. This school will always hold a very special place in my heart.

Over the next week, we will be welcoming our new Principal, Mr. Andrew Zadeiks. He is coming to us from Ocean Cliff Elementary and he is excited to be reunited with this community once again, as Mr. Zadeiks used to be a teacher at this school. I know our community will welcome him with open arms, much like you did me.

Thank you again for all that you have done, and continue to do, to support our school. I wish you all a wonderful holiday break.

Take care,

Ms. Tam Manery

Principal
