

ENGLISH

Spoken Language

Develop oral language and presentation skills: study and create authentic pieces for a variety of purposes

New Media

Develop Digital literacy skills through analysis and creation of a variety of digital and print media.

First Peoples (For all students)

Students explore personal and cultural identities, connections to land/space through indigenous texts and First Peoples' world views.

Literary Studies

Study literature through different periods, authors and areas of the world while developing skills in written communication.

Creative Writing

Experiment, reflect, extend and refine creative expression through written language via personal and cultural stories.

