Dear Parent/Guardian of Current Grade 11 Students

Graduates of 2022! We are excited to begin the new year planning for the final year of the Graduation Years program. What an exciting time to reflect upon your previous years in school and look forward to selecting courses that align with a pathway you are passionate about. We hope the course planning process below will provide you with the opportunities to ask questions and to seek advice and guidance on a pathway that makes the most sense for you as a learner. Below you will find a timeline and a description of what you can expect at each step along the way. We are excited to begin this final journey with you at North Surrey and we are incredibly proud of the individuals you have become.
