Supporting Canadian students who are creating positive environmental impact

Vancouver, BC, March 27, 2026 – Herbaland Naturals announces the launch of the 2026 Herbaland Sustainable Lifestyle Scholarship, recognizing Canadian students who actively practice sustainable living and create positive environmental and social impact in their communities.

The Sustainable Lifestyle Scholarship invites Canadian high school and university students to submit a written or video application demonstrating their habits and actions that reduce waste, conserve natural resources, and support sustainability in their daily lives. Herbaland will award three $1,000 scholarships, for a total of $3,000, to the top applicants.

Social Impact is one of Herbaland's core values and influences every decision the company makes. From creating plant-based gummies to making thoughtful choices about ingredients and operations, Herbaland is committed to fostering sustainability, embracing inclusivity, and driving positive change for communities and the planet.

"We want to celebrate and recognize students who are actively making a difference in their communities and for the environment," said Aisha Yang, Co-Founder and CEO of Herbaland. "We hope this scholarship will inspire more young people to adopt sustainable practices and continue building a more responsible future."

The scholarship is open to Canadian high school, undergraduate, and graduate students who are currently enrolled and continuing their studies in the following semester. Applications open March 17, 2026 and are due June 30, 2026, with the winners being announced on July 24, 2026.
