

Mission Statement

The Learning Commons at EMS encourages positive attitudes for life-long learning.

To do so,

It provides current and readily accessible information from print, non-print and electronic sources.

It teaches the skills necessary to access, retrieve, evaluate and use information in an effective manner and with academic integrity.

It fosters a quiet, supportive, and empowering environment for research, personal study, group work and leisure reading.