Principal's Message

November 8th, 2019

Remembrance Day is a time to reflect and remember those who have fought for our country. At times, it is difficult to fully appreciate the sacrifice our soldiers and their families have made on our behalf. Today, we held two assemblies to honour the men and women who have served in our military. Thank you to Mr. Anderson, Ms. Jensen, Ms. Beare, Mr. Clark and the students who participated in the Remembrance Day assemblies. Thank you to teachers for preparing your students so they were ready to observe this solemn event. Lest we forget.

Tuesday morning, I had the opportunity to show two members of the district's senior team around the school. It was the first time they were in the school. After spending time in classes and talking with students and teachers, they were amazed at the learning that is happening at Salish. A comment made was that 'we often talk about learning being active, but today we got to see it in action'. I wish they had stayed longer as after lunch, a beautiful rendition of 'Halleluiah' was ringing through the cafeteria. Curious to know who was singing so beautifully, I walked up the stairs to see the Musical Theatre students practicing for the Remembrance Day Assembly.

Wednesday the school was rather quiet with our Grade 9s away participating in Take Our Kids to Work Day. Our Grade 8s were busy that day on activities focused on the Careers 8 curriculum. Thank you to Ms. Andersen, Ms. McGowan and Mr. Missana for organizing a great day for our Grade 8s and 9s.

We head into a four-day long weekend. When we come back on Tuesday, we have our Welcome Pole Unveiling. Please read the memo sent out earlier today that provides meaning behind the Pole raising as well as other important information. Enclosed is a copy of the agenda for the event.

Ms. Hammond, Mr. Mahli and Mr. Tait
