Principal's Message

October 25th, 2019

We started the week with a heavy rainstorm and the Federal Elections being held at our school. The rain and the increase in traffic volume made for a slow start Monday morning. Although the overall percentage of Canadians who voted was down this year, you would never know it with the number of voters who came to the school throughout the day. The outcome of the election was not terribly surprising but it was interesting to see the results of our student vote that was held last week. The students at Salish voted in the NDP but it was the Liberals that took the National Student Vote. Thank you to Mr. Bandt for organizing the Student Vote for our students.

STUDENT VOTE RESULTS

OUR RESULTS:	NATIONAL RESULTS:
NDP – 139 (28.9%)	Liberals – 110 seats (32.4%) (Minority Gov't)
LIBERALS – 127 (26.1%)	NDP – 99 seats (29.1%)
GREEN PARTY – 71 (14.8%)	Conservatives – 94 seats (27.6%)
CONSERVATIVES – 60 (12.3%)	Green Party – 28 seats (8.2%)
SPOILED – 70 (13%)	Bloc Quebecois – 9 seats (2.6%)
[Next time, follow instructions!]

Our Parent/Teacher interviews were very well attended Wednesday afternoon and evening. Interim reports were also distributed to classes this week.

Thank you to Ms. Sodhi and students for the beautiful Diwali candles. Students loved the sign at the front entrance as well as the yummy snack at the end of the day.

Ms. Hammond, Mr. Mahli and Mr. Tait
