

Just a reminder that tomorrow September 29th we celebrate Orange Shirt Day at school.

Orange Shirt Day was created as an opportunity to discuss the effects of residential schools and their legacy.

It honours the experiences of Indigenous Peoples, celebrates resilience and affirms a commitment that every child matters.

On Thursday, September 30th school will be closed.

This summer, the federal government passed legislation to mark September 30 as

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. We are committed to highlighting the importance of this day and encouraging staff, students and families to take some time to educate, reflect and engage in conversation.
