Principal's Report

1. Start-up

- Very positive start to school year. Great feeling in the building. Assemblies on day worked really well. Grade 8's have been great. New focus on attendance seems to be working. Many clubs starting up.

2. Student Enrolment Update

- Our current enrolment is at 1420 which is slightly below projection.
- We are limited for physical space but managing.

3. Staff

- Fully staffed
- Two well-attended, engaging days of summer professional development learning focused on Indigenous learning and self-regulated learning.
- New laptops for most staff as part of district laptop program.

4. Athletics

- All Fall teams have coaches in place!
- Volleyball, boys soccer, and cross country happening now

5. PAC Funding Requests

- Our staff is busy putting together proposals to access PAC funding.

6. September Calendar

- a. Grade 8 Retreat – Thursday, September 11 and Friday, September 12

- Students had a day of team building activities at Camp McLean in Langley, led by our leadership students who were amazing. Each student got a t-shirt, pizza lunch, and it seemed like all had a great day.
- b. Terry Fox Day Run – Friday, September 19
  - Email will be sent to all families with the link to donate in Friday's parent scroll.
- c. Orange Shirt Day – Sept 26
  - All staff and students encouraged to wear Orange Shirts in the spirit of truth and reconciliation .
