8. New Business

- PAC Elections, need to post positions, nominations before and hold elections at May meeting
- Parent concerns:
  - Office punishments – kids heard that students in trouble get to do fun things at office instead of getting in trouble. Was explained that these children are not in trouble but having a scheduled work break – not punishment.
  - Some parents had asked what to do if they have an issue with a teacher. What should the procedure be? Ms. Keeper prefers for a parent to talk to teacher first for resolution and then her if it needs to be discussed further or not resolved.

9. Open Forum

- Discussed new fundraising ideas. These included:
  - Hostage of Principal, VP or teachers – raise money for release
  - Pie eating competition
  - Balloon pop game (at sports day or welcome back bbq)
  - Lolli pop sales – Jen found place sells 640 for $290
  - Community garage sale – maybe June 8th – sent out email to see interest – discuss May meeting
  - Used book sale – parents send used books as donation – sell for .25 or .50 cent each

Meeting Adjourned: 7:45pm
