Dear Parents and Students,

Thank you for your patience as we prepare for the coming school year. As you know, in early August we received word that secondary schools would move to a quarter system with students in cohorts of 30-60. It has taken several weeks to rebuild the timetable and to get information to families regarding student schedules. We know and understand the delay in receiving this information has been difficult for families. However, our Vice-Principals and counsellors worked extremely hard and we are now able to publish student schedules. Please log onto MyEd to view student schedules.

Once you have logged on, look for your first quarter Block A class. That class will give you the course and teacher name that is important for you to know when you come to school for Orientation on September 10th and 11th. A reminder that Grade 8 and 9 students will have their orientation by the Block A cohort on September 10th. Grade 10-12 students will have their orientation by the Block A cohort on September 11th. We have enclosed the schedule of Orientation cohorts below.

In order to keep cohorts together, there will be minimal course changes. Counsellors will address scheduling issues in the following order of priority:

1. Any student with an incomplete quarter 1
2. Any student with an incomplete timetable
3. Grade 12 students who require a course change for Graduation
4. Grade 10-12 student who request a course change

See you next week.
