KPU Indigenous Trades Sampler - Thursday, November 7, 2019

For Indigenous youth: a fun and informative day that includes hands-on experiences in a variety of trade areas. The event will be hosted at KPU Tech Cloverdale Campus on Thursday, November 7, 2019, and is available to students in grades 10 through 12. (If they have spots available closer to the due date, we will open it up to the junior grades.) See the application package for all the details. IGAs and ACYCWs, discuss this opportunity with the Career dept and your administration in an effort to help with selecting students. We are hoping to fill 36 seats. If an ACYCW or IGA would like to accompany their students for the day, please contact Georgina Hopps at hopps_g@surreyschools.ca. They would certainly appreciate the extra supervision and support. Please complete the paperwork and scan it back to Georgina by Monday, October 28, 2019 by 3:00 PM.

Note: Ignore the “Testimonial” section of the KPU waiver.

Guildford Park Secondary Indigenous Family Info Night - November 27 – 5-7pm – school library

Guildford Park is happy to host another Indigenous Family Information Night about the school community, education options for learners (both kids and adults), and community resources. The evening will be arranged trade show style, and community members can come browse the information available. We will have coffee and snacks. (Browse booths from UBC, Bold Eagle, ATEC, FRAFCA, SFU, Douglas and others.)
