This Week at Fleetwood Park - Principal's Message: October 7th – 11th

Hello Dragons and welcome to another "This Week at Fleetwood Park"!

It was only 1 degree Celsius this morning as I greeted students for another school day at Fleetwood Park Secondary. Chilly temperatures, but with warm and happy smiles, was a nice way to start my day!

Last Friday was a special day for our Home Economics students and staff. They hosted their “Farm to Table” event. Students harvested their first crop of vegetables and herbs from our school garden and then prepared delicious soups and salads with these amazing ingredients! Their butternut squash soup and couscous salad were delicious. Thank you to all students who helped prepare for the event and to Ms. Mullen and Ms. Mattoo for your guidance and leadership. Great work everyone!

On Monday I had the opportunity to attend a District meeting focussed on Student Leadership with our Student Council President Eshana and Leadership teacher Mr. England. I was reminded of the importance of student voice in schools, and the value of student leadership in setting direction and building school culture. We are so fortunate at Fleetwood Park to benefit from the energy, enthusiasm and commitment of our student leaders. Whether it is involvement through our formal student governance of the Student Council, or through the curricular involvement of our Leadership classes, or through the extracurricular activities and initiatives of our many clubs, our students make such a positive difference every day.

On Wednesday I was able to attend our Scholarship Committee meeting, and was again privileged to learn more about the amazing students in our school community. Character, Service and Leadership are themes that are crucial for our future citizens and society, and are displayed in so many different areas at Fleetwood Park Secondary.

On Wednesday evening our Dry Grad Committee met to continue their planning for this year's Dry Grad Celebration. This committee is an excellent way for parents of senior students to become involved in the life of the school and directly support our graduating class. Please consider volunteering for this very worthy cause. The Dry Grad Committee executive may be reached at : DryGradFleetwoodPark@gmail.com

Aboriginal Education is a significant part of our new British Columbia curriculum. On Thursday I had the chance to meet with Surrey District's Aboriginal Education Department Administration, Ms. Anderson, our First Peoples' Principles of Learning Department Head, and Mr. Walshe, our Aboriginal Advocacy teacher to discuss and plan upcoming educational initiatives. Our school will continue to develop programming that supports all our students and reinforces this important curriculum.

"Building Successful Futures"

Throughout the week I have been meeting with our Department Heads to discuss successes, challenges and goals for the 19/20 school year. These have been very valuable conversations. There is much to celebrate at Fleetwood Park with authentic, meaningful learning opportunities happening across the curriculum. Great thanks to all Department Heads for your leadership and expertise as we move into the school year. I am confident that our work together will engage students and staff and result in excellence in all areas of learning.

This week as the temperatures dropped our PHE classes were able to develop their Table Tennis skills in our Plaza.

PHE students were also taking advantage of the beautiful clear skies and sunshine!

Enjoy this cool, clear weather over the next few days. Have a happy Friday and an excellent Thanksgiving Long Week-end with family and friends. We will see everyone again on Tuesday morning.

All the best,

Ken
