Hello Queen Elizabeth Secondary School Community,

As we had said in our Tuesday letter, students will begin returning to the building on Monday June 1st. Below, we have again included the schedule we will be using through the end of June. Each day we will welcome students to one of their classes (A block on Monday, B block on Tuesday, C block on Thursday, and D block on Friday), over 5 separate tutorial times. Beginning today students can book time in one of the tutorials on the day designated for their block to see their teachers. They can book one block for each day through the first week. Students can go to our website or CLICK HERE to go on to the system to make schedule their sessions. Student instructions are attached. The sign up for next week will close the night before the day of the tutorial they are booking for. So booking a session for A block on Monday will close on Sunday night. Booking for B block will close on Monday night and so forth. Booking for the following week will open on Wednesday of the week prior at 9am.

Some teachers will be unavailable for appointments during this time. If a student needs help in their class and their teacher is unavailable, they can CLICK HERE to request an appointment with another teacher who teaches the same grade level subject and we will endeavor to schedule the student in with them on the same day.

Please note that there are no tutorials on Wednesdays as the school will be cleaned. Alternate arrangements for attending have been made for students in our BASES and Inter A program. Those students do not need to book times.

Please also note that tutorials for students in grades 8-10 will begin 5 minutes prior to those in grades 11-12, in order to reduce traffic in the hallways.
