Just a reminder

If your child will be absent from school or late, please call the office at:

We recognize the excitement around Halloween and are looking forward to some fun with that. Tomorrow, our senior students will put on a “Haunted House” option for classes. As well, the primary classes will have a chance to do a parade of costumes. Please remember a few important points: no replica weapons, avoid costumes that include elements of cultural appropriation, and (medical) masks must still be worn. When students return to school after Halloween, please minimize the number of ‘junk food’ snacks they bring to school.

Today, our primary classes had a chance to visit the pumpkin patch that was brought to Martha Currie. It was quite joyous, especially with some of the farm animals that joined us. Thank you to the students who saw a need to help put out the pumpkins this morning and volunteered to do so. We love the leadership of our students!

Our school has started a Big-Little Buddies Reading program that connects older leaders with younger students who can use a boost for reading or a good connection. Thank you to Ms. J. Daigneault (our Aboriginal Enhancement Worker) for organizing the program and prepping the big buddies for how to work with the younger students. We are very excited to see this program in action.

We want to extend a huge thank you to the Sunrise Church who, in partnership with City Dream Centre, have generously donated hampers to some of our families. It really does take a village. Special thank you to a former MC parent Chris Boyko for leading and organizing the work with the hampers.
