ADMIN

- ★ On Wednesday we will do a final confirmation of your course requests. In order for you to be able to do this, you will need access to your MyEd account. Please double check you have access! If you do not, please see Mr. Thibault outside the Library today or tomorrow.

COUNSELLING

- ★ Students in Gr. 9-12, along with their parents, have the opportunity to attend one of two post-secondary Open House and Information Night Events on Thursday. Capilano University in North Vancouver is holding Explore CapU from 5–7:30pm, an opportunity to check out all their programs. CapU offers degrees in Arts, Sciences, Business, Engineering transfer and Education, and are particularly well known for their Music and Theatre programs, as well as Outdoor Recreation and Tourism Management. Also on Thursday there is the opportunity to visit the UFV Chilliwack campus from 4–7pm to check out the Trades and Health Sciences programs, including Nursing. See Ms. Falk in Counselling for further details and registration information.
- ★ The Study and Go Abroad Fair is happening on Saturday at the Pinnacle Hotel Harbourfront in Vancouver from 12–5pm. Students in Gr. 9–12 are invited to check out universities and work/study programs from Canada, the US, the UK, Germany, Spain and more including medical school in the Bahamas. There will also be sessions on how to apply for scholarships. For more information and registration details please see Ms. Falk in Counselling.

CAREER CENTRE

- ★ Attention Gr. 10-12 students—the Career Centre is going on a tour to SFU Burnaby and there are open seats on our bus. If you want to visit SFU, get a tour of the campus and find out about all their university programs, pick up a field trip form today or Tuesday to get yourself a spot on our free field trip! Visit the Career Centre for a permission form.
- ★ Attention Gr. 11 students interested in applying for district career programs, the deadline to apply is early March and program visits are happening soon. If you are interested in any of the trades, healthcare or hospitality programs, please visit the Career Centre this week to apply. This is your last chance to get your tuition paid for and to start earning post-secondary credits. See Ms. Rogerson or Ms. Duckett in the Career Centre for details.

EVENTS

- ★ Congratulations to all the musicians who performed in the past weekend's Surrey Schools Jazz Festival! You created some incredible music including wonderful solos! An extra special congrats to the musicians of the rep bands as well as our two combos for their extracurricular musical endeavors!
- ★ Pascal, Fermat and Cayley math contests take place in the Library on Wednesday during Block B. Bring a pencil, eraser and a calculator if you registered for the contest.

SPORTS

- ★ Senior Girls Soccer—If you are interested in trying out for the senior girls' soccer team Gr. 10-12, the meeting will be at lunch in the small gym tomorrow.
- ★ Flag Football—There is a flag football scrimmage after school at 3pm on the upper field.
- ★ Junior Badminton—The sign-up meeting for junior badminton tryouts boys and girls' team is at lunch tomorrow in A204. The junior girls tryout, Gr. 9-10, is tomorrow after school starting at 3:45pm in the big gym. Junior Girls Soccer—Calling all soccer stars! Any Gr. 8 or 9 girls wanting to play junior girls' soccer, there will be a meeting in the small gym tomorrow at lunch. Tryouts will be this week, so if you would like to try out, you need to be at this meeting. Any questions, message Mr. Campbell.

CLUBS

- ★ Dungeons & Dragons Club—Have you ever wanted to battle dragons, explore ancient ruins, solve mysterious riddles or save entire kingdoms with nothing but your wits and a roll of the dice? Now's your chance! Our Dungeons and Dragons Club is recruiting new players of all experience levels—from complete beginners to seasoned dungeon masters. Whether you've never touched a twenty-sided die or you've been adventuring for years, there's a seat at our table for you. We meet on Tuesdays and most other days at lunch in E201.

GRADS

- ★ If you are in Gr. 12 and are interested in scholarship opportunities, you are invited to a meeting on Friday in the Library at lunchtime. Ms. Rac will be going over the Partners 36 Scholarship application process for 2026 and Ms. Rogerson will be going over the District Authority Scholarships. We look forward to seeing you there!
