

2023 HARTVIKSON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP IN MEMORY OF LOURDES LLAMZON

Deadline: March 10, 2023

Application details and submission requirements at:
westvanfoundation.ca/scholarships
(online form based application)

The Hartvikson Memorial Scholarship honors the memory of Lourdes Llamzon, who was born in the Philippines. In 1970 she immigrated with her 2 young children to start a new life in Canada. She dedicated her life to her family, her community and to make a difference through her work in agriculture.

Administered by the West Vancouver Foundation, this $1,000 scholarship is awarded to a student (Canadian or International), that is enrolling in a post-secondary institution in Canada studying sustainable agriculture and food systems, and who possesses the character and qualities exemplified by Lourdes Llamzon: dedication to family and community, athletic commitment, high academic achievement, and a passion for sustainable and ethical agriculture. The scholarship may be renewable annually for up to 4 years if the applicant is a full-time student and maintains a post-secondary grade point average of 74%. Financial need of the recipient will also be considered.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

In order to be considered for the Hartvikson Memorial Scholarship In Memory Of Lourdes Llamzon, a student must meet all of the following criteria:

Enrolling in a Canadian post-secondary sustainable agriculture and food systems program at an institution registered with the Canadian Revenue Agency; and

Submit a typed essay (not exceeding 500 words) describing yourself and how you identify with the personal attributes that were so important in Lourdes' life.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Dedication to family and community
Athletic commitment and high academic achievement
Evidence of community service and school spirit
Priority will be given to applicants requiring financial assistance